

Medical hypnosis

Monday 04 February 2019

Location: 21 Portland Place, London, W1B 1PY

Organisers: Dr Jane Boissiere, British Society of Clinical and Academic Hypnosis (BSCAH)

09:00	Registration
09:25	Introduction
09:30	Hypnosis and communication for the anaesthetist Dr Allan Cyna, Adelaide, Australia
10:15	How to induce a simple hypnotic trance and generate imagery. Mrs Jean Rogerson, Associate Lecturer (BSCAH), Birmingham
11:00	Tea & coffee
11:30	Further practice
12:00	Hypnosis in anaesthesia - practical applications and current evidence Dr Paul Slater, Northampton
13:00	Lunch
14:00	Hypnosis for pain management Dr Caron Moores, Liverpool
14:30	Hypnosis in paediatrics and obstetrics Dr Allan Cyna, Adelaide, Australia
15:15	Tea & coffee
15:30	Starting out in hypnosis Dr Simon Tunstill, Reading
16:00	Questions and feedback

Depart

Learning Objectives

- To experience and induce a light hypnotic trance 3A07
- Basic understanding of modern definition and theories of hypnosis 2A10, 2A12
- Consider the structure of hypnotic language and ways to incorporate it into daily practice 2A10, 2A12
- An awareness of the potential applications of hypnosis in anaesthetic practice, including anxiety management, pain, obstetrics, paediatrics, phobias 2B01, 2D05, 2D06, 2E01, 1D02, 2B01, 3I00

This seminar covers Domain 3: Communication, partnership & teamwork

In association with the BSCAH

