

Online seminar: Anaesthesia for the older patient

Wednesday 18 November 2020

08:30 – 12:30 (log in available from 08:15)

Organiser: Prof Akbar Vohra, Manchester

- 08:15      Log in available
- 08:30      Welcome and introduction
Prof Akbar Vohra, Manchester
- 08:40      The role of prehabilitation in older patients during a pandemic
Prof Sandy Jack, Southampton
- 09:05      Questions and discussion
- 09:15      Critical care of the older patient - any lessons from COVID?
Dr Thomas Szakmany, Newport
- 09:40      Questions and discussion
- 09:50      Anaesthesia and the spectre of dementia
Dr Andrew Severn, Lancaster
- 10:15      Questions and discussion
- 10:25      Comfort break
- 10:35      Analgesic strategies for the elderly patients - any changes since COVID?
Dr Chandran Jepegnanam, Manchester
- 11:00      Questions and discussion
- 11:10      Role of the geriatric medicine in the management of the older surgical patients.
Dr David Shipway, Bristol
- 11:35      Questions and discussion
- 11:45      Does anaesthetic technique matter for the older patient's undergoing surgery
Dr Andrew Castello-Cortes, London
- 12:10      Questions and discussion
- 12:20      Summary and closing remarks
Prof Akbar Vohra, Manchester
- 12:30      Close

This seminar is kindly sponsored by

